BIOGRAPHY

Biographical notes

Daniel H. Lantaigne is part of a new generation of leaders redefining philanthropy. A recognized strategist and advisor to executive teams and boards, he works at the heart of decisions shaping philanthropic organizations across Canada. Known for his clarity and rigor, he challenges blind spots and pushes organizations to elevate their standards in a rapidly evolving sector. Working at the intersection of governance, human capital, and philanthropic strategy, he supports organizations through critical moments and helps strengthen their capacity to decide, structure, and sustain themselves. A contributing expert to Les Affaires, he actively engages in public conversations on issues such as power, mental health, and the long-term sustainability of the sector. He holds a Master's degree in Philanthropy and Nonprofit Leadership from Carleton University and carries the ASC, C.Dir., CFRE, and CHRP designations. He serves on the Board of Trustees of Ingenium Canada.

CHARTER OF RIGHTS

Charter of Rights for Philanthropy Professionals

A Canadian reference framework for dignified, fair, and sustainable working conditions in philanthropy. Consultation work begins in fall 2026.

6

core principles

“The intent of this Charter is to provide a shared language that allows sensitive situations to be addressed earlier, more clearly, and more collectively, before they escalate into open conflict or costly ruptures.”

Translated from the original French.
